

Changemakers Conference 2022 Programme

Sunday 20 February

- Change Makers Service 6.30pm 2hrs

Come and worship with us online as we start the Changemakers conference with a moving service of song, prayer and reflection. John Sentamu, our new Chair of Trustees, will preach and the service will be hosted at Point-in-View Chapel in Exmouth with contributions from churches and supporters across the UK and internationally.

Monday 21 February

- Volunteering at Christian Aid: Powerful together 10am 1hr

Discover the power of volunteering with Christian Aid and see how local action makes a global impact. From community based to bespoke roles, there are countless ways to make a difference. Come join us to learn, celebrate, and be inspired to put your faith into action.

- Christian Aid Week 2022: hungry to provide 1pm 1hr FR

Join us to hear about our work in Zimbabwe and all our exciting plans for Christian Aid Week 2022.

- Whose prophetic voice? Speaking up and speaking out 7.30pm 1.5hr

The ability for people and communities to speak out against extreme poverty inequality and justice is essential to end poverty. Be inspired by Christian Aid's Ambassadors and global frontline activists to raise your prophetic voice and to amplify the voices of those who we seek to serve.

Tuesday 22 February

Changemakers Conference 2022 Programme

African countries: Burundi, Sierra Leone, South Sudan, Nigeria, and Kenya. Then, hear from our Legacy Team about how your church can encourage more gifts in Wills to transform your local mission, too

- Climate campaigning beyond COP26. 7.30pm 1.5hr

Join us to hear Christian Aid's latest thinking on climate justice campaigning, and help develop our campaign for 2022 (repeat of session on 22 Feb 2pm).

Thursday 24 February

- Letters for Creation: Engage schools and churches in the climate crisis through art. 10am 1.5hr

Throughout 2022 we're inviting people to share their views on climate change in a creative project called Letters for Creation. We've worked with children across the world to develop some beautiful pieces of art that capture their concerns and hopes about the climate crisis. Find out more about the project, and how you can use it to engage schools, churches and more.

- Just Scripture – CREAS 7.30pm 1.5hr

Just Scripture is an opportunity to connect remotely with Christians from across the world in Bible study. In this session, we will be joined by a group of young Christians from Latin America, all of whom are associated with CREAS (Regional Ecumenical Advisory and Service Center) based in Argentina. CREAS' purpose is to encourage ecumenical dialogue on issues of social justice to generate solidarity and mutual encouragement. This is an interactive workshop in which we will explore Scripture together to learn from one another and be moved to take action.

Friday 25 February

- Round Table Discussion: Leading churches to take action 10am 1.5 hrs

A global discussion about the successes and challenges of leading churches that take action for social justice. Our international panel will have a conversation together about their contexts and stories and then there will be time for discussion and ideas around your local experiences. This session is ideal for church leaders who want to inspire their congregations on social justice and for those looking to build the movement for change.

- Closing Session 2pm 1hr

Summarising and celebrating our wonderful week and what we've learned.

These are some of the events. See the website for more detail and to sign up for any <https://www.christianaid.org.uk/get-involved/events/changemakers-conference-programme> (FR probably has a fundraising focus, * You will be emailed a recording so long as you register.)
